The MAP to success!

What do you get when you mix ten talented young artists with inspiring mentors?

The Peoria Art Guild's Mentor Apprentice Program.

The success of the program was on display
when the work of the MAP students was recently shown. Curated by Susie Mathews, the exhibit included ceramics, sculpture, photography and more.

"Incredible" is the way education director Erin Robert describes the program. "MAP is a terrific opportunity for these kids, almost a mini-college session."

HERE'S HOW IT WORKS.

Every year, talented local high school students are invited to apply for an eight-week mentorship with established professional artists. They can expect an intense period of hands-on individual and collaborative studio work.

Offered at no cost to the apprentices, the program provides practical experience in writing marketing and presentation, as well as practice in curating and hanging their own exhibit in The Guild's gallery.

"We're thrilled with the work of these students," says Erynn Dykstra, Guild board member and head of the education committee. "Several students have received scholarships to such prestigious institutions as the Chicago Art Institute, Minneapolis College of Art and Design, University of Illinois, Bradley University and Illinois State University."

NANCY GOODMAN BRINKER'S Hungarian Art Collection

The Peoria Art Guild was the premier visit for a nationwide tour of former Ambassador Nancy Goodman Brinker's world class collection of Hungarian art. Spanning over a hundred years of Hungarian history, the exhibit was on display in the gallery from October through mid-November.

In collaboration with the Peoria Memorial Affiliate of the Susan G. Komen Breast Cancer Foundation, The Guild hosted an evening reception on October 20th, featuring Hungarian art, food and drink. Proceeds raised that evening from the Silent Auction benefited the Peoria Art Guild's education programs and the Susan G. Komen Breast Cancer Foundation.

In addition to Nancy Goodman Brinker, speakers at the reception were Bill Heidrich, Guest Curator of the show; Linda Washkuhn, representing the Komen Peoria Memorial Affiliate; and the Hungarian Ambassador to the United Nations, Gabor Brodi.

Peoria was also privileged that Hala Modellmog, CEO of the Komen Foundation, and several other Komen Foundation members from Dallas attended the reception. Thanks also to Linda Maricle, Peoria Memorial Affiliate, Executive Director.

We are very grateful to Ambassador Brinker for opening her art tour in her hometown, Peoria, and for giving us the opportunity to see her exceptional collection. We also appreciate Ambassador Brodi's trip to Peoria and his warm and generous remarks.

The Peoria Art Guild Fine Art Fair 44th...and Fabulous!

The artwork was amazing, the weather turned out wonderful...and the crowds came, in record numbers.

“We’re still receiving rave reviews from artists and patrons alike,” says Liza Decoteau, Fine Art Fair coordinator.

“The caliber of art has never been higher.

“Of course, we couldn’t have achieved it without the work of an incredible team led by our Fine Art Fair co-chairs, Kim Armstrong and Cathi Hawkinson, and Kids Art Festival co-chairs Erynn Dykstra and Merrell Hickey. Special thanks to all our sponsors, the Fine Art Fair committee (which works all year round) and to nearly 400 community volunteers.”

thank you

Getting Together with Friends for Fun...and Funds!

Several special events recently benefited The Peoria Art Guild’s educational outreach programs:

Thanks to PortraitLife Studio in Washington for “LifeReach” a November evening of wine, refreshments and auction. All proceeds go to the Guild’s artReach programs which help disadvantaged children discover and express themselves through art.

The auction included the works of PortraitLife owners Jeff and Julia Woods as well as items donated by sponsors: Canon, Caterpillar, Exhibit A Gallery, Five Senses, Friar Tuck, Hearth & Patio, Numero, Peoria Camera Shop and Scottwood Floral.

Thanks to The CopperWorks Restaurant on Pioneer Parkway for unique jazz and brunch events also in November. Open only a few months, CopperWorks has become a premier patron of the arts in Peoria and a special friend of children’s art education programs. Thanks go to all the supporters, especially general manager Brian Woelfle.

LOCAL COLOR

On exhibit in the Fleming Conference room is the work of Amada Gerwig. “The inspiration nature provides is infinite, but the natural world itself is not without limits. These recent works explore points where land, sky and water meet. Such fragile junctions teem with life, yet are increasingly threatened by escalating development and extraction of resources. As the natural world continues to be subdivided, paved over, rerouted and subdued, I am drawn more than ever to places untouched, thus far, by the bulldozer.”

Ms. Gerwig is a native of Kewanee, Illinois

MARK YOUR CALENDARS

The 2nd annual Junction City Art Fair is scheduled for June 2-3, 2007. New this year is the Young Artists Show, sponsored by the Peoria Art Guild to show the work of tri-county students between 5th and 12th grades. More details available soon!
